Thank you!

When a customer purchases the Credit Educational eBook Series, and chooses to participate in the free dispute process, and adheres to the Instructions outlined for them.....at the end of their one free year of disputing TFC will do a complete analysis on their file. TFC will add the deletions and changes identified and made during the year and multiply them by the industry standard value of $75 per deletion or change. If the customer has not received the minimum value of the purchase price of the eBook....we will refund the difference! A customer has nothing to lose.....they get the education and the full value out of the money spent.
